

Want maximum exposure?
Want your home showcased?

Featured Listingssm is the answer!

Exposure is everything

With the Featured Listings targeted marketing service, I ensure your property receives an unprecedented level of exposure to real buyers searching in Listingbook for their dream home. In the most active online real estate site in the area, your home receives the special attention that makes it stand out from the rest. It's the little extra that makes the difference. Featured Listings makes sure your home gets noticed!

Gain the competitive edge

Effective targeted marketing differentiates your property from your competition. Featured Listings allows me to provide you with the highest level of promotion available by targeting the right buyers and their agents. You receive attention grabbing top billing in buyers' customized daily updates. Online, the Featured Listing Gold Star icon ★ clearly designates your home. Using targeted marketing, your property is brought to the attention of all buyers with matching criteria and their agents. No one will be able to overlook your home!

Numbers provide answers

Increased exposure should result in more activity, more showings and inquiries...and ultimately the sale of your listed property. But if it doesn't, Listingbook helps you find out why! After the promotion, you will receive a comprehensive report which shows the promotion results, gives comparisons, and graphs the current competitive market. If needed, we can adjust our marketing strategy to achieve your goal, selling your home at the best price in the shortest time.
