

Ready for an effective Open House? Want to know how I inform real buyers?

Buyer Linkssm Open House is the answer!

Targeting gets results

In Listingbook, I can target buyers with criteria matching your home. Not lookers out for a Sunday drive, but real buyers and their agents. Using the most active real estate site in the area, homebuyers are searching and finding their dream homes. By using the Buyer Links targeted service; I make the best prospects and their agents are linked to your home. It's what you want...an effective marketing program to the real buyers.

Let's put your home at the top of their search!

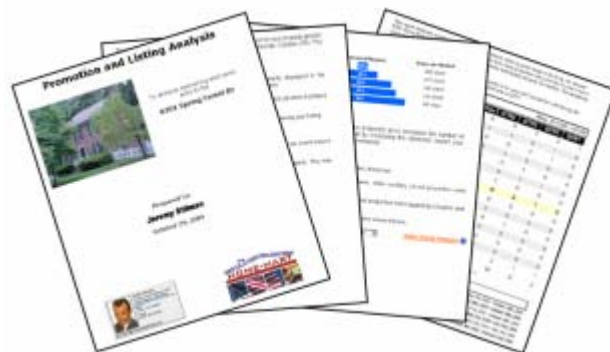

The early bird catches the worm

Your open house will receive the highest level of targeted marketing available in the market today! I start the promotion early in the week, send an invitation on Thursday, and promote the event right up until the day of the open house.

Everyone who should know will know! Early and repeated contact allows buyers to include your home in their plans.

Numbers provide answers

Increased exposure should result in more activity, more showings and inquiries. But what if it doesn't? After the open house, you will receive a comprehensive report which shows the promotion results, gives comparisons, and graphs the current competitive market. If needed, we can adjust our marketing strategy to achieve your goal: selling your home at the best price in the shortest time.
